By clicking on the button „Next“, the Customer will be redirected to a website where the Customer may enter data and choose the payment method. - 6.3 The Customer will pay the Distributor the Licence Fee based on the Licence Metric and the Subscription Term as specified in Annex 1.

7. LICENCE AND APPLICABILITY OF THE EULA

The Customer's acceptance of these GTC alone does not grant the Customer any right to use the Software. The right to use the Software will be granted separately under the terms and conditions of the EULA, which have to be accepted by the Customer during the order process and by each end-user during the installation of the Software.

8. SERVICES

- 8.1 The Distributor will not be under any obligation to:
 - 8.1.1 maintain the Software, unless provided by clauses 9 and 10;
 - 8.1.2 support the Software or Documentation unless the Customer has ordered such support services in a separate agreement;
 - 8.1.3 to provide Software Updates; or
 - 8.1.4 to upgrade the Software or Documentation.
- 8.2 Without prejudice to clause 8.1, if the Distributor makes any Software Update available to the Customer, the Customer will procure that it is installed promptly and correctly.
- 8.3 The Distributor is under no obligation and makes no warranty relating to frequency of Software Updates.

9. RIGHTS IN CASE OF DEFECTS

- 9.1 The Software provided by the Distributor shall be substantially in accordance with the Documentation as made available by the Distributor. Documentation shall not be deemed guaranteed unless separately agreed in writing. In respect of Updates, upgrades and the delivery of new versions, the Customer's rights in case of defects shall be limited to the new features of the update, upgrade or new version compared to the previous version release.
- 9.2 The Distributor will remedy any defects by way of improvements and/or a replacement of the Software. If the defect is not cured within a first time limit and the Customer has set the Distributor a reasonable second time limit without success or if a reasonable number of attempts to remedy are unsuccessful, then Customer may, subject to the statutory prerequisites, opt to terminate the Subscription and/or claim for damages. The remedying of the defect may also take place through the delivery or installation of a new program version or a work-around. If the defect does not or not substantially impair the functionality, then Distributor is entitled, to the exclusion of further rights in case of defects, to remedy the defect by delivering a new version or an Update as part of its version, Update and upgrade planning.

- 9.3 If the Customer is a merchant, the Customer is still obliged to pay the entire subscription fee in the case of a defect, unless the right to reduce the fee is undisputed or final and absolute under a court judgement. Any potential claims for unjust enrichment remain unaffected. Consumers may reduce subscription fees – where applicable - in accordance with the statutory provisions.
- 9.4 Defects must be notified in writing with a comprehensible description of the error symptoms, as far as possible evidenced by written recordings, hard copies or other documents demonstrating the defects. The notification of the defect should enable the reproduction of the error. This shall not affect the statutory obligation of the Customer to inspect and notify defects.
- 9.5 Any claims for damages are subject to the limitations set forth under clause 11.
- 9.6 The Distributor may refuse to remedy defects or deliver replacements, until the Customer has paid the agreed fees to the Distributor, less an amount which corresponds to the economic value of the defect.
- 9.7 If the subscription is free, the rights in case of defects are restricted to the statutory liability for defects as described in Sec. 600 of the German Civil Code.

10. RIGHTS IN CASE OF DEFECTS IN TITLE

- 10.1 The Software delivered or provided by the Distributor shall be free from third party rights, which prevent the use in accordance with the contract. Excepted from this are customary retentions of title.
- 10.2 To the extent that there are defects in title, the Distributor is entitled at its option to either (i) take legitimate measures to remove the third party rights, which impair the contractual use of the Software, or (ii) remedy the enforcement of such claims, or (iii) change or replace the Software in such a manner, that it no longer infringes the rights of third parties, provided and to the extent that this does not substantially impair the warranted functionality of the Software.
- 10.3 If a release under clause 10.2 within a reasonable time limit set by the Customer fails, then the Customer may subject to the statutory prerequisites at its option terminate the Subscription or claim damages.
- 10.4 In all other respects clauses 9.3, 9.4, 9.5 and 9.6 apply accordingly.

11. LIABILITY AND DAMAGES

- 11.1 The Distributor shall be liable under the terms of this Agreement only in accordance with the provisions set out under clauses 11.1.1 to 11.1.5:
- 11.1.1 The Distributor shall be unrestricted liable for Losses caused intentionally or with gross negligence by the Distributor, its legal representatives or senior executives and for Losses caused intentionally by other vicarious agents; in respect of gross negligence of other assistants in performance the Distributor's liability shall be as set forth in the provisions for simple negligence in clause 11.1.5 below.
- 11.1.2 The Distributor shall be unrestricted liable for death, personal injury or damage to health caused by the intent or negligence of the Distributor, its legal representatives or assistants in performance.

- 11.1.3 The Distributor shall be liable for Losses arising from the lack of any warranted characteristics up to the amount which is covered by the purpose of the warranty and which was foreseeable for the Distributor at the time the warranty was given.
- 11.1.4 The Distributor shall be liable in accordance with the German Product Liability Act in the event of product liability.
- 11.1.5 The Distributor shall be liable for Losses caused by the breach of its primary obligations by the Distributor, its legal representatives or assistants in performance. Primary obligations are such basic duties which form the essence of the Agreement, which were decisive for the conclusion of the Agreement and on the performance of which the Customer may rely. If the Distributor breaches its primary obligations through simple negligence, then its ensuing liability shall be limited to the amount which was foreseeable by the Distributor at the time the respective service was performed.
- 11.2 The Distributor shall be liable for loss of data only up to the amount of typical recovery costs which would have arisen had proper and regular data backup measures been taken.
- 11.3 Any more extensive liability of the Distributor is excluded on the merits. In particular, the Distributor is not liable for initial defects, except in cases of clause 11.1.

12. DATA PROTECTION

the other party may terminate the Subscription by giving not less than 14 days' written notice to that effect to the party in breach provided that the notice to terminate is given within six months from the date of the material breach occurring or the party terminating the Subscription becoming aware of it, whichever is the later.

14.3 The Distributor may terminate the Subscription without notice if Licence Fees in arrears exceeds the Licence Fees for one month.

14.4 The Distributor may terminate the Subscription with immediate effect by giving notice to the Customer if:

14.4.1 any Sanction is imposed in respect of any country or territory from which the Software, Documentation or services are exported or provided or into which they are imported or in which they are received;

- 14.4.2 a Sanction is made in respect of the Customer or any User or in respect of any country in which the Customer or any User is incorporated or operates;

 - 14.4.4 the Distributor has reasonable cause to believe that the Customer or any User has breached or is likely to breach any Sanction or Export Law.
- 14.5 The parties acknowledge and agree that if, at any time, a party is entitled to exercise more than one right of termination under these GTC, such party may, at its sole discretion, elect which (if any) termination right or rights it wishes to exercise.

15.1 Following the Termination Date:

15.2 Within 30 days after the Termination Date:

- 15.2.1 the Customer will return to the Distributor all copies of the Software and of the Documentation in its possession or control, whether those copies are authorised or unauthorised; and
- 15.2.2 the Distributor will return to the Customer or delete all copies of Customer data in its possession or control unless the Distributor is required to keep copies for any regulatory purpose in which case the Customer has the burden of proof.

16. SEVERANCE

If any term of these GTC is found by any court or body or authority of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, unlawful, void or unenforceable, such term will be deemed to be severed from these GTC and this will not affect the remainder of these GTC which will continue in full force and effect.

17. ASSIGNMENT

- 17.1 The Customer will not be entitled to assign, transfer, charge, hold on trust for any person or deal in any other manner with any of its rights under these GTC. This does not apply for the assignment of monetary claims of the Customer if the Customer is a merchant.

19. WAIVER

A delay in exercising or failure to exercise a right or remedy under or in connection with these GTC will not constitute a waiver of, or prevent or restrict future exercise of, that or any other right or remedy, nor will the single or partial exercise of a right or remedy prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. A waiver of any right, remedy, breach or default will only be valid if it is in writing and signed by the party giving it and only in the circumstances and for the purpose for which it was given and will not constitute a waiver of any other right, remedy, breach or default.

20. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

20.1 We would like to point out that, besides the legal recourse, there also exists the possibility of an extrajudicial resolution pursuant to regulation (EU) no. 524/2013.
